Corporate Advisory Services
in the Kingdom of Bahrain

Corporate Advisory Services

At Keypoint, we are committed to helping clients achieve their goals by providing the highest quality business advice. Our unique approach – working seamlessly with clients to provide innovative solutions – is enhanced by our willingness to challenge existing thinking while remaining compliant with local laws and leading practice. Our multi-lingual, experienced CAS function helps clients - whether looking to establish a new business; needing to restructure (or liquidate) an existing business; or requiring critical documents translated - access solutions so that businesses are – and remain – compliant with local regulations.

Cost-effective results, professionalism and efficiency are our keystones, helping to ensure that our wide range of advisory services – all of which conform with the Bahrain Commercial Companies Law (the BCCL) and other relevant legislation – add value to our clients.

Over the last 20 years, we have advised stakeholders of numerous regulated businesses, developing relationships and significant experience across regulatory issues. We use our expertise and experience to tailor the services you need - and deliver those services seamlessly and efficiently.

Corporate services

CBB licensing

The sole regulator of Bahrain’s financial sector, covering banking, insurance, investment business and capital markets activities, the Central Bank of Bahrain (CBB) also oversees the regulatory framework for financial services firms operating in the kingdom. Any business wishing to provide a service regulated by the CBB rulebook requires a CBB licence. Our CAS team has advised promoters and other stakeholders on the most appropriate CBB licence - a key part of any licensing application – as well as other critical initial requirements. We can also develop and translate required statutory documentation, as set out in the CBB rulebook.

Company formation

Establishing an acceptable legal structure that is efficient and appropriate is critical in business. At Keypoint, we draw on our wealth of knowledge and experience to provide the information clients need to make informed decisions. With Bahrain allowing 100% foreign ownership of businesses operating in specific sectors and offering a range of legal structures - including limited liability companies, open and closed joint stock companies and branches of foreign businesses - we compare legal structures, outline advantages and disadvantages, explain capital structures, highlight regulatory obligations and set out maintenance costs, enabling clients to choose the most appropriate business structure. Once the most suitable legal structure has been identified, we work with investors to identify the activities - pre-listed by the Ministry of Industry and Commerce (MOIC) - that are most appropriate for the business, reflecting both ownership status and its sector.

Translations

While English is accepted as Bahrain’s language of business, certain statutory records, including a company’s constitutional documents, must be maintained in Arabic (with an option to include an English translation). Our bilingual professionals are well-versed in preparing legal and other documents in both Arabic and English. Organisations may also need important documents translated quickly and confidentially into and from Arabic. Our multi-national team of translators, based both in Bahrain and in Jordan, efficiently provide seamless translations of a wide variety of commercial and personal documents.

Transaction management

CBB application support

As Bahrain’s sole financial service regulator and responsible for the regulatory framework all financial services firms operating in the kingdom must comply with, Central Bank of Bahrain (CBB) approval is critical for any financial services business operating in the kingdom. Our highly specialised CAS team uses its deep and long-established relationships with key decision makers at the CBB to obtain initial and final CBB approvals and guide key decision makers at financial businesses from idea creation to full operations.

Restructuring and corporate amendments

For a business to be successful, it needs to adapt. Where an original legal structure is no longer fit for purpose, our experienced CAS team works with key decision makers to reorganise legal, ownership and operational structures in response to growth or some other significant change. This includes reviewing existing business structures and recommending structures which are better aligned with the needs of the business. In accordance with the BCCL, our solutions include:

- Share transfers
- Changes to:
 - Share capital
 - Business activities
 - Directors
 - Registered office addresses
 - Constitutional documents

Liquidation advisory

From time to time, shareholders may decide to discontinue activities and liquidate a company. Liquidation tends to be a lengthy process that involves liaising with regulators and a range of company stakeholders. Keypoint can advise on all the formalities required by local laws and regulations. Acting as the liquidator, we can complete procedures and formalities.

Administration of offshore entities

Offshore entities - which must comply with Bahrain’s legal and regulatory requirements - are companies or businesses that are registered, established or incorporated outside the country where its main operations and owners are located. Bahrain allows for offshore entities to be established under certain circumstances. Our CAS team has established and administers a variety of offshore entities, working where appropriate with colleagues from other service lines.

Real estate advisory

Real estate is a core economic sector across the GCC. We offer a range of real estate advisory solutions, including:

- Advice on real estate investment vehicles
- Set up of owners' associations
- Acquisitions and disposals of real estate assets
- Operational and internal control reviews
- Portfolio restructuring and management
- Transfers of property title deeds

Regulatory compliance

Corporate governance advisory

Good corporate governance is an essential ingredient of all successful companies. With the regional focus on formal corporate governance codes intensifying, Bahrain-registered companies are expected to adhere to Bahrain's Code of Corporate Governance. The 'comply or explain' approach means that companies must keep abreast of legislative developments and consider the implications of their actions. The increased focus on governance and transparency has given company secretaries a much more proactive role in ensuring companies comply with statutory requirements as well as implementing leading corporate governance practice.

Compliance advisory

From anti-money laundering (AML), countering the financing of terrorism (CFT) and counter-proliferation financing (CPF) to know your customers (KYC) and corporate governance, financial institutions globally are focused on complying with both regulatory requirements and leading practice. Our team helps standardise and enhance compliance and governance frameworks, using a model-based process to demystify regulatory requirements, simplify implementation and improve monitoring.

Company secretarial services

Our CAS team has an unmatched understanding of statutory obligations for all Bahrain-registered businesses, at inception and ongoing. By outsourcing corporate secretarial needs to Keypoint, key decision makers can focus on core competences and meeting company objectives. Our broad range of corporate secretarial services includes:

Board meetings:

- Advising on board structures and board charters
- Advising on the roles of executive and non-executive directors, including roles, responsibilities and accountability
- Assisting with convening board meetings and executive committees, including preparing and circulating notices, agendas and minutes
- Maintaining statutory registers and administering formalities
- Developing and maintaining governance packs

Shareholder meetings:

- Assisting with shareholders' meetings (including annual general assemblies), such as preparing and circulating notices, agendas and minutes
- Filing required documentation with the relevant authorities
- Assisting with replies to enquiries from regulators

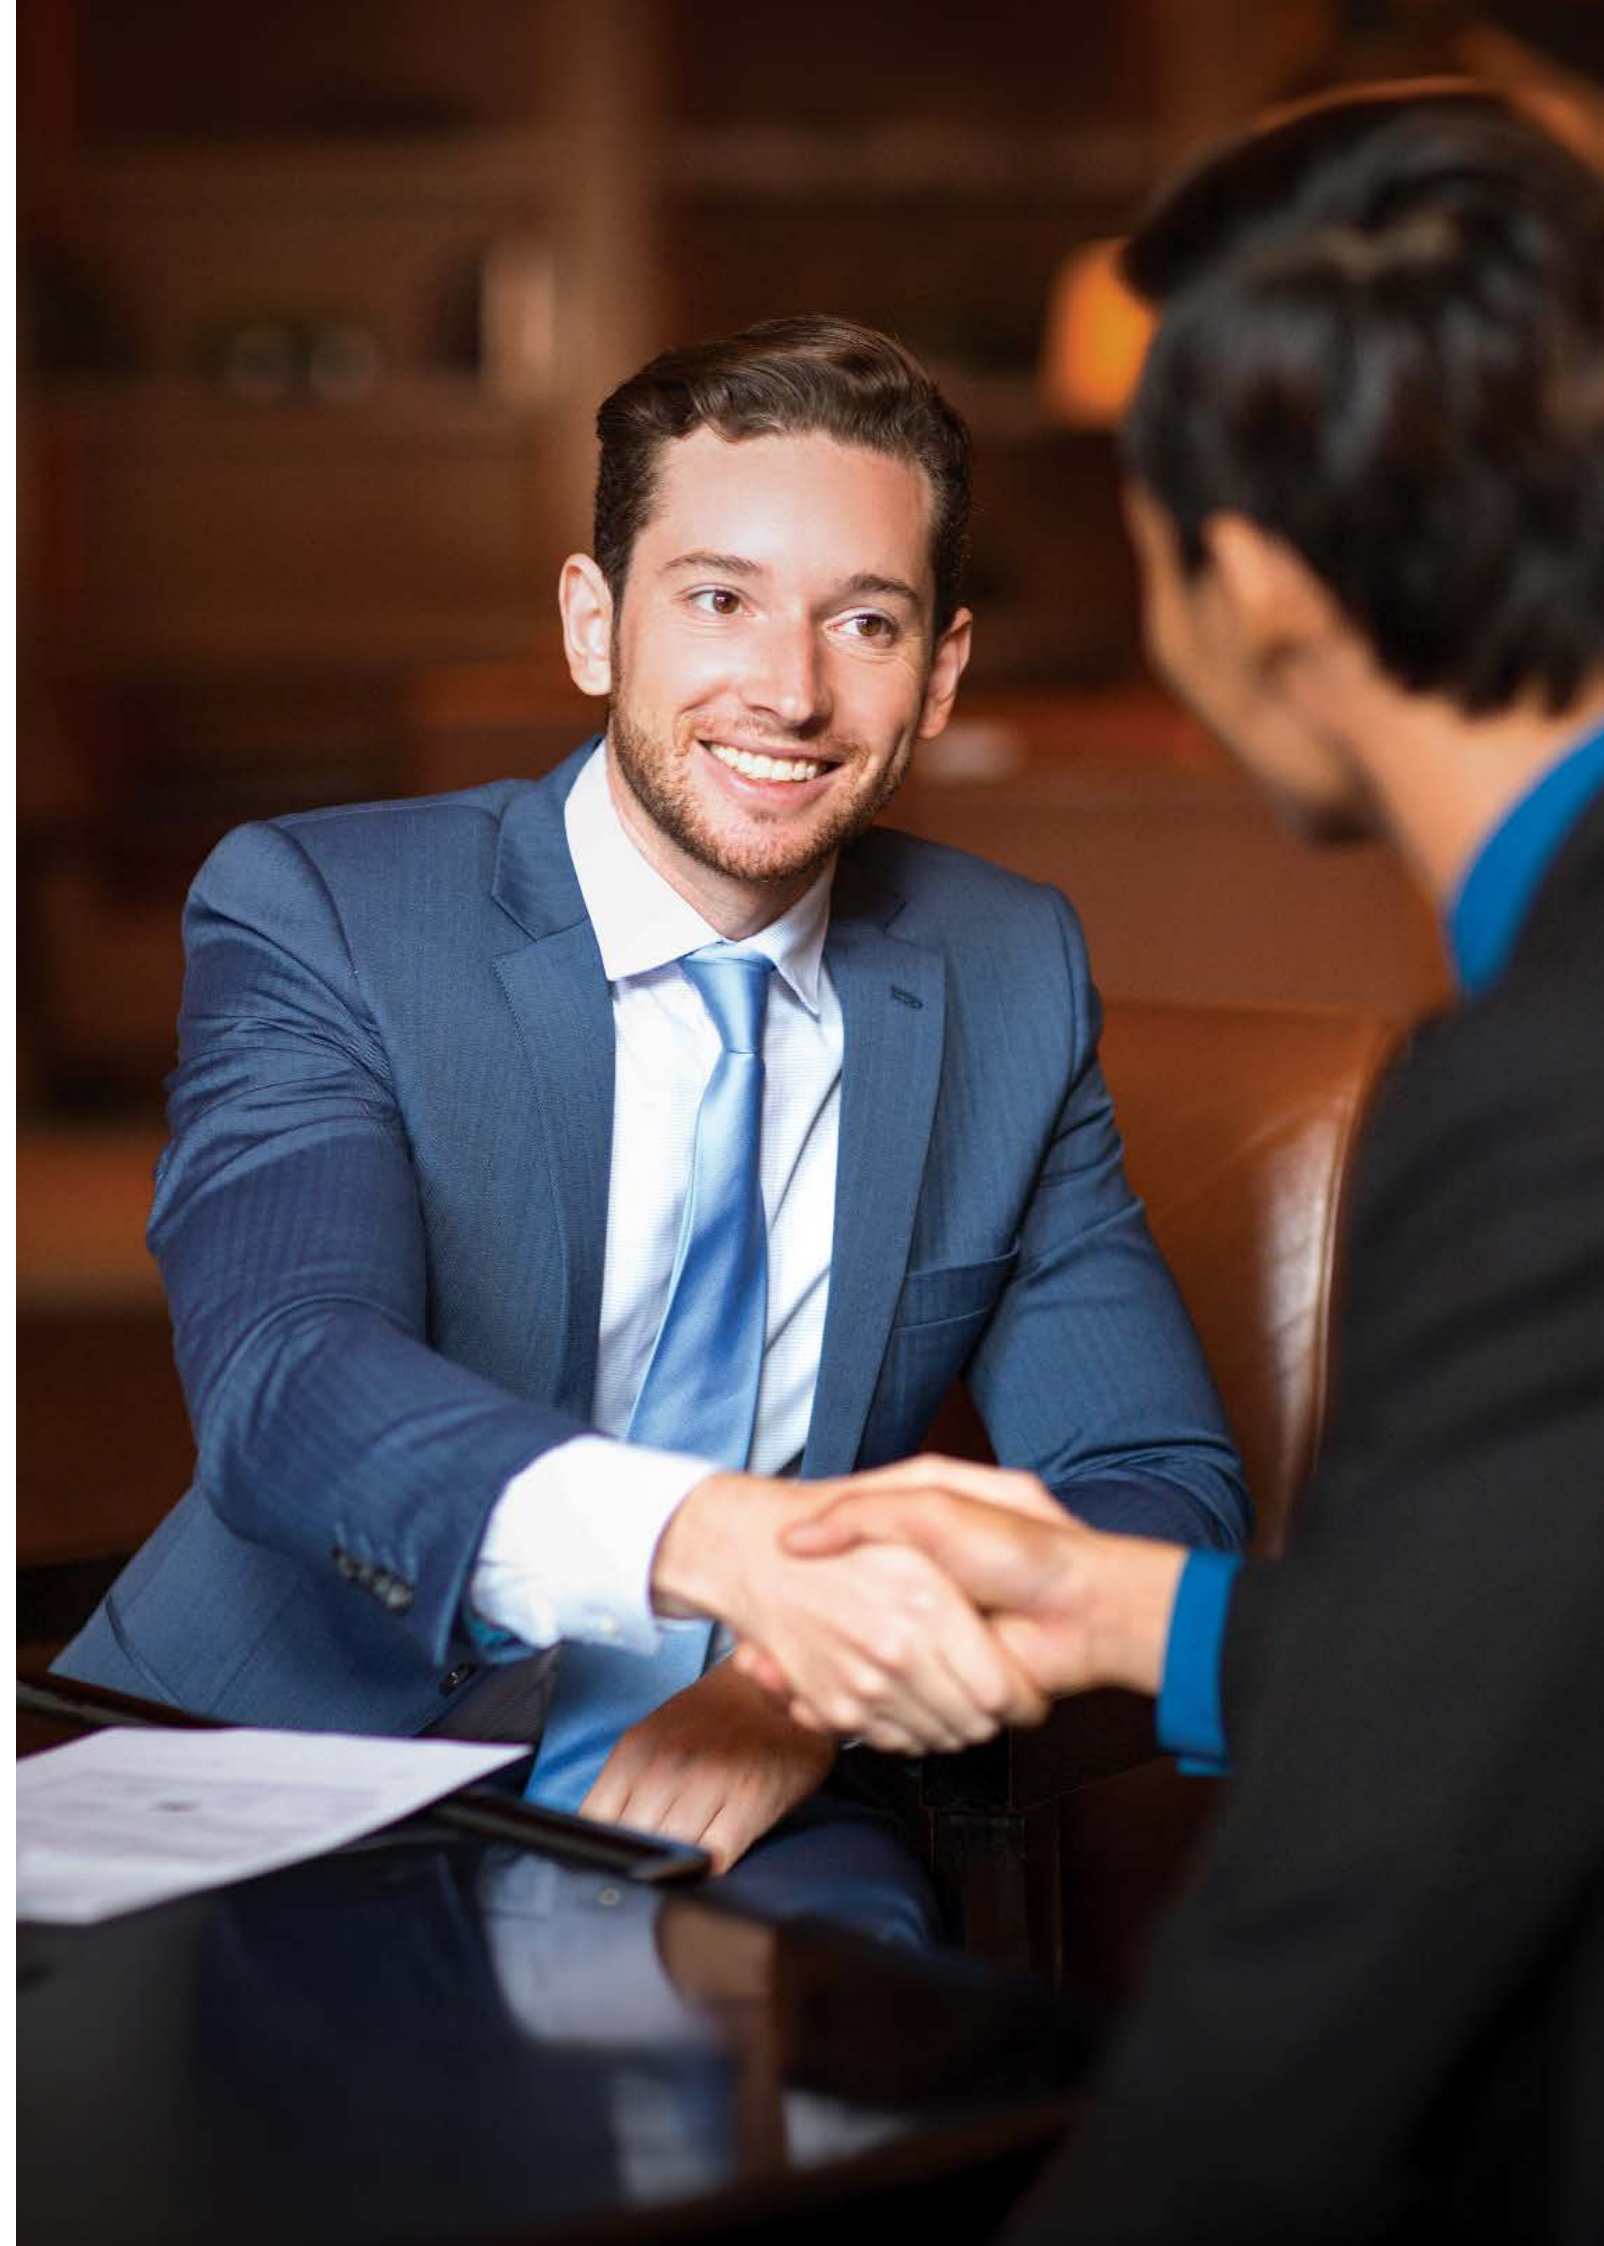

Lifestyle management

Private office services

Across the CAS function, we have developed deep relationships with key decision makers at ministries, regulators and non-departmental public bodies, ranging from the Ministry of Industry and Commerce to the Central Bank of Bahrain. In an environment where personal relationships are a key part of doing business, our ability to manage key decision makers and other external stakeholders is central to the value that we can add.

Stakeholder management

Having offered corporate advisory solutions in Bahrain for two decades, we know – and are known by – key decision makers across the kingdom. As trusted advisors to some of the region's most influential individuals, families, HNWIs and organisations, we use our deep experience and excellent contacts to identify and solve issues and business challenges.

Our corporate advisory subject matter experts

Mohammed Ashraf
Executive Director

nasr.ali@keypoint.com

A senior member of our corporate advisory function, Nasr advises key decision-makers at local and international companies, family groups, multi-national conglomerates, international real estate companies and law firms on a variety of business issues.

He has developed strong relationships with government bodies and regulators, including the Ministry of Industry and Commerce; the Ministry of Justice, Islamic Affairs and Waqf; Bahrain’s Economic Development Board; and the Survey and Land Registration Bureau. Before joining Keypoint, Nasr worked with multinational enterprises, family businesses and law firms and was the board secretary for one of the largest family groups in Africa. Certified as a professional property manager (BIBF), he holds a bachelor’s degree in law (LLB) from Cairo University.

Khalid Al Alawi
Executive Manager

+973 17206805
khalid.alalawi@keypoint.com

A bilingual (Arabic and English) Bahraini who has been with Keypoint since 2007, Khalid has developed deep expertise across Bahrain’s registration, administration and regulatory compliance requirements. He leads much of the administrative work we do with government and regulatory authorities, supporting the incorporation of new commercial entities and amendments to company documentation. He uses his deep understanding of corporate law and strong links with government bodies, regulators and other stakeholders, including the Ministry of Industry and Commerce (MOIC), the Bahrain Chamber (BCCI) and various municipality authorities, to develop practical solutions for clients looking to establish or transform their presence in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Employed earlier in his career as a translator, Khalid graduated from the University of Bahrain.

Adeela Naji
Senior Manager

+973 17206854
adeela.naji@keypoint.com

Having quickly worked her way up from assistant consultant since joining Keypoint in 2017, Adeela drafts corporate documentation (in Arabic and English); helps establish legal entities; and advises key decision-makers on changes to legal structures. Her administration and compliance experience includes convening and minuting shareholders’ and board meetings; acting as a company secretary; updating management structures; and advising on corporate governance matters and licensing issues.

She has developed strong relationships with key decision makers at government bodies and regulators across Bahrain, including the Ministry of Industry and Commerce (MOIC), the Directorate of Municipal Affairs, the Bahrain Tourism and Exhibitions Authority (BTEA) and the Notary Directorate (part of the Ministry of Justice, Islamic Affairs and Waqf).

Adeela graduated with an LLB from the University of Bahrain.

Malak Hussein
Manager

+973 17206849
malak.hussein@keypoint.com

Bilingual (Arabic and English), Malak uses her extensive knowledge and experience to support new and existing clients by drafting and reviewing constitutional documents and various types of agreements. While at Keypoint, Malak has worked closely with regulators such as the Central Bank of Bahrain (CBB), the Ministry of Industry and Commerce (MOIC), the Ministry of Tourism and other public sector bodies while working on the incorporation, restructuring and liquidation of a range of different businesses. She has worked across a wide range of sectors, including healthcare, the industrial sector, hospitality businesses and financial institutions.

Malak has bachelor’s (LLB) and master’s (LLM) degrees in law from the University of Bahrain.

Maryam Abdulkarim
Manager

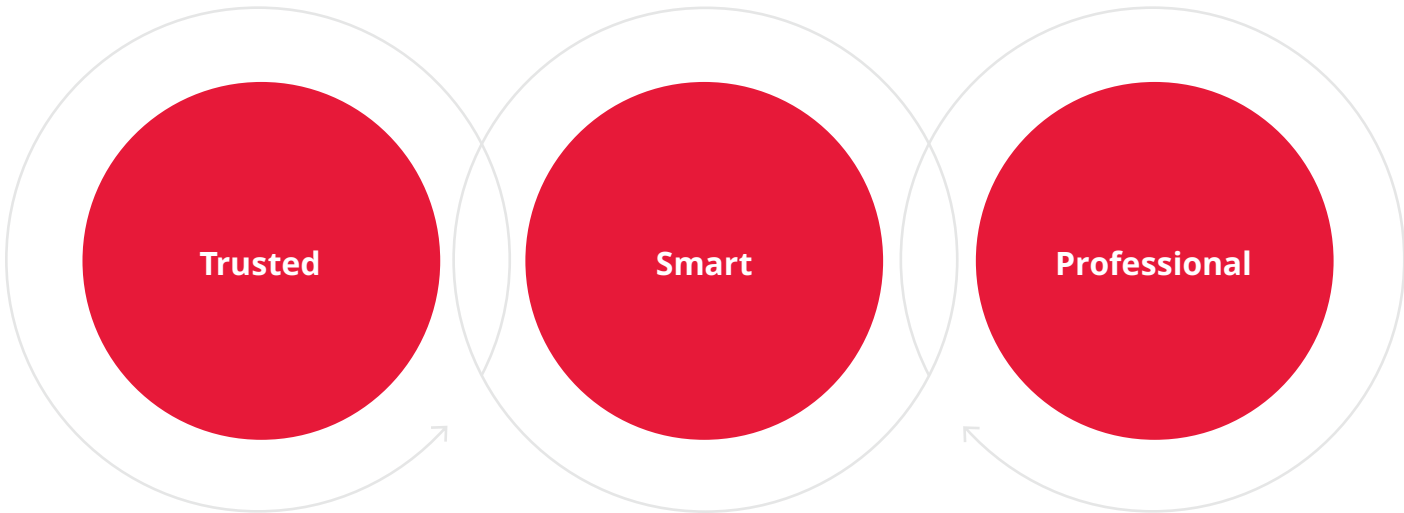

+973 17103484
maryam.abdulkarim@keypoint.com

Having joined our corporate advisory function in 2018, Maryam has developed considerable expertise across a variety of business areas, including the establishment of different category of businesses in different economic sectors and the drafting (in English and Arabic) of business-related documentation – with a particular focus on CBB-regulated financial institutions.

Before joining Keypoint, she worked as a legal trainee at a leading international conventional bank and a regional Islamic bank, giving her a different insight into the legal aspects of the financial services industry. Having originally studied business, Maryam graduated from the Royal University for Women (Bahrain) with a bachelor’s degree in law.
